

EVENSONG

As daylight fades to grey
Time slows down
I look back on this day
And trace your presence now
For all you've done
Seen, unseen
I'll treasure in my sleeping

Those I have met today
Friends I know
Strangers and family
I bring before you now
For every one, weak or strong
Are treasured in your keeping

Lord where these anxious thoughts fill my mind
Where words taste bitter now and hurt is left behind
Lord grant your peace and forgive
My treasure is your healing

When night gives way to dawn
I may face hard choices to be made or 'just another day'
But God is here, Lord of all
Our treasure is you with us
